Stephen Daly Joins the Inaugural Class of the Monroe County Bar Association Leadership Academy

Philadelphia, PA (December 20, 2022) — Stephen Daly of Manko, Gold, Katcher & Fox LLP (MGKF) has been selected to the inaugural class of the Monroe County of New York's Bar Association Leadership Academy. The Academy is designed to introduce eligible attorneys to the broad dimension of significant public issues in the Rochester, New York region, encourage community involvement, and develop new connections intended to enhance balance and perspective for attorneys in the region. The program is open to Monroe County area attorneys with more than four-years' experience and fewer than ten-years' experience as a lawyer.

At MGKF, Daly works out of Western New York, where he concentrates his practice on environmental litigation and has broad experience litigating a wide variety of environmental matters including toxic tort defense, administrative appeals of agency permitting and enforcement actions, defense against citizen suits under federal and state laws, and cost recovery actions. Steve has litigated numerous matters relating to large or controversial infrastructure or development projects, which frequently involve litigation across multiple forums – state, federal, and local – and before administrative agencies. He has extensive experience in administrative litigation, including challenges brought against federal agencies under the Administrative Procedure Act, as well as challenges to agency action before the Pennsylvania Environmental Hearing Board, the Delaware River Basin Commission, the Delaware Environmental Appeals Board, and the Delaware Coastal Zone Industrial Control Board, as well as under Article 78 in New York.

MGKF concentrates its practice in environmental, energy, litigation, safety and land use law. We proudly celebrate more than 30 years of representing clients ranging from Fortune 100 corporations to small, privately held enterprises, both in the Mid-Atlantic region and on a national basis. MGKF is also honored to be the top-rated law firm, since 2011, in the Top Workplaces surveys by the Philadelphia Inquirer, Daily News and Philly.com.
